Notes for JOHN BANOWETZ:

!Died from Pulmonary Tuberculosis. Buried at: Calvary Cemetery (adjoining Fairview Cemetery) in Section E, Coffeyville, Montgomery, Kansas, USA. John was a Farmer. His grandfather, John Banowetz, lived in Austria-Hungary and came to America in 1866. He traveled to Dubuque, Iowa, where many of his countrymen had settled. Later he sent for his family which consisted of his father, Michael Banowetz, his mother, Gertrude (Stanitsch) Banowetz, and his brother, Mathias, who was fourteen years younger. They migrated to this country in 1870 and located in a settlement known as Sugar Creek District, Browns, Clinton County, Iowa. Here they found people who had immigrated from Austria-Hungary and who were also Catholic.

My grandmother, Margaretha Nick, also lived in Austria-Hungary. At the suggestion of her brother, Joe Nick, who had come to America previously, she came to join him in Dubuque, Iowa in 1872. There she met my grandfather and with the blessings of both her brother and his parents they were married in the Sugar Creek Catholic Church on April 7, 1873. They moved on a 40 acre farm in the Sugar Creek District, Browns, Iowa, and started housekeeping. Their first five children were born on this farm. They then made several moves before my grandfather bought a 240 acre farm near Angola, Kansas, which was to become known as the "Home Place".

(Written by Mary Constance from notes made while talking with Daddy, Frank E. Banowetz, as well as written material found elsewhere.)

Excerpt from the Browns, Sugar Creek and Riggs History, The Banowetz Families on pages 6 and 7:

John Banowetz met Margaretha Nik, who had joined her brother, Joseph Nik in Dubuque in 1872. They were married in April of 1873 at St. Josephs in Sugar Creek. They settled on a small farm of 40 acres west of the church. According to the 1894 plat map, M Banowetz had purchased this farm of 40 acres, adding to the original 32, which made his farm include 72 acres. Margaret was born in 1852 in Bistriz #12, daughter of Johan Nik and Maria Goeschel. John and Margaretha were the parents of: George, John B., Mary, Joseph H., Matthew O., Katherine Viola, Michael W. Frank E., and Margaretha M. By 1884 the John Banowetz family had moved to Labette

County, Kansas and in 1920 Maggie was living in Coffeerville. This is in the southeast corner of Kansas, just north of Tulsa, OK.

On th 1910 Census, Margaretha is living in Coffeyville, KS, Head with three children: Mike, Frank, and Minnie (Margaret M.); however, it looks as though whoever took the census tried to show Minnie as daughter-in-law, age 15, only all three are shown as single and Margaret was the youngest children.

From a contemporary press report:

War hero's wish comes true today
By KEVIN DUGGAN

Leonard "Yank" Banowetz is getting his wish. Today, Banowetz's cremated remains will be buried at Arlington National Cemetery in Virginia. The historic 200-acre site outside Washington, D.C., is the country's premier military cemetery.

Banowetz, a longtime Fort Collins resident, died here January 30, 2003, at age 81. He was eligible for burial at Arlington because of his Army service in World War II.

He was a tank commander with the 3rd Armored Division in Europe. Banowetz served in five major campaigns during the war and was wounded three times. His military honors include the Purple Heart, the Silver Star, the Bronze Star and the British Military Cross.

The ceremony at Arlington was delayed to take advantage of the pleasant fall weather in the Washington area, said Carolyn Banowetz, who was married to Yank Banowetz for 54 years.

"Yank always said he wanted to be buried at Arlington," she said. "I tried to talk him out of it a few times, but it's what he really wanted."

Banowetz always was proud of his military service, she said, and felt a strong attachment to Arlington. It's the final resting place for military men and women from every armed conflict the country has ever seen -- from the revolution to Iraq -- as well as presidents, explorers and many historical figures.

The cemetery has about 20 funerals a day. It contains the remains of about 280,000 people, said Arlington spokeswoman Barbara Owens.

Carolyn Banowetz said family members from across the country will travel to Washington for today's 11 a.m. funeral.

The burial ceremony will include a Catholic military service at the grave site, an escort from the 3rd U.S. Infantry, a U.S. Army band, a bugler and a firing team of seven riflemen. The firing team will shoot three volleys.

Carolyn Banowetz said the ceremony will be videotaped.

"I wanted something for the grandchildren to see," she said.

Yank Banowetz was well-known in the Fort Collins community. He and his family moved to Fort Collins in 1966. He was an attorney and taught business law in the honors program at Colorado State University for 15 years free of charge.

He also was active with the Boy Scouts and the Rotary Club. He played Santa Claus at holiday parties at Foothills Gateway.

Arrangements for the services at Arlington were made locally by Goes Funeral Care. Owner Chris Goes said the cemetery has clear protocols on who may be buried there.

Goes receives a request from the family of a military veteran to help arrange services at Arlington every year or two. Funerals at the cemetery are always performed impeccably, he said.

"The ceremony for the family will be something that only Arlington can put together," he said.

Yank Banowetz will be buried in Section 70 of the cemetery, overlooking Washington, D.C., and the Pentagon, Owens said. His grave will be near the graves of members of the military who were killed in the September 11, 2001, attack on the Pentagon, Owens said.

Carolyn Banowetz said it will be hard to have her husband buried so far from home, but she does not regret following his wishes.

"This is something I want to do," she said. "This is something I have to do."

She was a member of St Joseph's Parish in Sugar Creek. Refr.: Prayer card containing the following information:

"Mom's Heart"

It all started in 1906 when Martin and Minnie Teshak received a gift from God and named her Pauline Caroline.

In 1915 she opened up her heart and received Christ on her first communion.

In 1926 she met Joe and her heart took a spin and gradually got worse till she married him in 1927.

As each child came along, her heart filled with love-Joseph, Jr., Robert, Clarence, Evelyn, Rita, and Viril.

In 1933 her heart doubled when she took Joe's brother, John, in and gave him a home for 38 years and done "to the least of my brethren."

In 1957 her heart broke when Clarence was killed in a car accident.

In 1962 and 1966 her heart ached as her parents were called home.

Her heart took another spin when Joe was called home on October 22, 1990.

Her heart finally needed some more help-so on October 11, 1991, she had a pacemaker put in. On July 28, 1998 she had it replaced again.

She witnessed nine grandchildren and 20 great-grandchildren baptized and her heart beamed with joy.

I think you can truthfully say she loved Christ with all her heart all her life.

Now on this day, May 20, 2002 she gave her heart back to the Lord that gave it to her.

Many of you remember their fruit orchard. Every peach, pear, plum and apricot had to be picked up and given away. Each year for the last 10 years, she lost tree after tree. Last year she lost the remaining trees. She said, "Now it's my turn."
