Burial was in St Joseph Church Cemetery along side of deceased husband Joseph. Pauline was a homemaker. She and Joe farmed for many years together on the home place, where she also cared for Joe's brother, John, for 38 years. She enjoyed flowers and her orchard. She was a member of St Joseph's Parish in Sugar Creek. Refr.: Prayer card containing the following information:

"Mom's Heart"

It all started in 1906 when Martin and Minnie Teshak received a gift from God and named her Pauline Caroline.

In 1915 she opened up her heart and received Christ on her first communion.

In 1926 she met Joe and her heart took a spin and gradually got worse till she married him in 1927.

As each child came along, her heart filled with love-Joseph, Jr., Robert, Clarence, Evelyn, Rita, and Virl.

In 1933 her heart doubled when she took Joe's brother, John, in and gave him a home for 38 years and done "to the least of my brethren."

In 1957 her heart broke when Clarence was killed in a car accident.

In 1962 and 1966 her heart ached as her parents were called home.

Her heart took another spin when Joe was called home on October 22, 1990.

Her heart finally needed some more help-so on October 11, 1991, she had a pacemaker put in. On July 28, 1998 she had it replaced again.

She witnessed nine grandchildren and 20 great-grandchildren baptized and her heart beamed with joy.

I think you can truthfully say she loved Christ with all her heart all her life.

Now on this day, May 20, 2002 she gave her heart back to the Lord that gave it to her.

Many of you remember their fruit orchard. Every peach, pear, plum and apricot had to be picked up and given away. Each year for the last 10 years, she lost tree after tree. Last year she lost the remaining trees. She said, "Now it's my turn."
